Your responsibilities may include but will not be limited to:

- Under the supervision of your Heads of Department, maintaining the Production as instructed and dictated by the creative team in line with the artistic requirements and direction of the Production;
- Working alongside your team, other technical departments, stage management, the acting company and resident creative team members to ensure the efficient flow of information as necessary for the smooth running of the show;
- Attending all rehearsals, show calls, maintenance calls, get-ins, fit-ups and get-outs as required by your Heads of Department or the Company Manager, including emergency calls in the event of equipment failure or other incident, particularly if there is a risk of the cancellation of a performance;
- Assisting with the operation and maintenance of all equipment used by your department, including equipment checks prior to each performance, as requested by your Heads of Department;
- Acquiring a familiarity with all plots/tracks within your department so that you are able to provide holiday or absence cover for other members of your department as required;
- Deputising for the Deputy Heads of Department in their absence, if requested;

- Having an awareness of understudy and swing performances ahead of each show and making necessary adjustments, if any;
- Assisting your Heads of Department in compiling and keeping updated cue sheets and other relevant show paperwork, both soft and hard copy, to such a level as to ensure an accurate reference to allow the Production to be remounted at a later date;
- Working in accordance with the Producer's Health and Safety policy, which may include working at height, using appropriate safety equipment and clothing and attending any training deemed necessary;
- Comply at all times with the rules and regulations in force at the venues under the control of the Production;
- Having an awareness and understanding of the Producer's employment policies;
- Such other services as are customarily provided by a Tech Swing in relation to the production of a first-class musical stage play; and
- Any other duties as may be reasonably required in the course of your duties or as instructed by the Head of Automation, Head of Stage, Company Manager, Production Manager, General Managers or Executive Producer from time to time.

We are committed to a workplace culture that embraces diversity and inclusion across all departments.

Please note all applicants must have the right to work in the UK

Successful candidates will need to adhere to the company's following guidelines should an offer of employment be made:

In order to reduce risk and keep you and all other employees as safe as possible, you acknowledge that you will be required to adhere at all times to the company's COVID-19 protocols. These may include mandatory, supervised COVID-19 testing, quarantining when asked to do so and the requirement to wear a facemask. We also strongly recommend that employees are fully vaccinated against COVID-19. The company's protocols will incorporate the local COVID-19 protocols of the rehearsal room, theatre and any other premises in which you are required to work. You acknowledge that this is a dynamic situation and protocols may change. WLPL will use reasonable endeavours to support you and keep you acquainted with all applicable health and safety protocols. Lack of compliance may result in disciplinary action.
