KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Responsibilities for the Deputy Head of Wardrobe for the Production will include all the services usually required of the Deputy Head of Wardrobe for a first-class production of the scale of the Production, carried out to the highest professional standard.

For the avoidance of doubt, responsibilities may include but will not be limited to:

- under the supervision of your Head of Department, maintaining the Production as instructed and dictated by the artistic requirements and direction of the Production;
- working alongside your team, other technical departments, stage management, the acting company, resident creative team members and theatre staff to ensure the efficient flow of information as necessary for the smooth running of the show;
- attending all rehearsals, show calls, maintenance calls, get-ins, fit-ups and get-outs as required by your Head of Department or the Company Manager, including emergency calls in the event of equipment failure or other incident, particularly if there is a risk of the cancellation of a performance;
- assisting with the preparation and maintenance of all costumes and equipment required by your department, including checks prior to each performance, with an awareness of cast holidays, understudy and swing performances, if any;
- acquiring a familiarity with all plots/tracks within your department so that you are able to provide holiday or absence cover for other members of your department as required;

- deputising for the Head of Department in their absence, if requested;
- assisting your Head of Department in compiling and keeping updated cue sheets and other relevant show paperwork including the costumes show running bible;
- for Dublin, assisting with the get-in, fit-up and get-out of all equipment for your department, and assisting other departments as required;
- working in accordance with the Producer's Health and Safety policy, using appropriate safety equipment and clothing;
- having an awareness and understanding of the Producer's employment policies;
- and any other duties as may be reasonably required in the course of your duties or as instructed by the Producer from time to time.
