KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Responsibilities for the Head of Lighting for the Production will include all the services usually required of the Head of Lighting for a first-class production of the scale of the Production, carried out to the highest professional standard.

The whole company will be expected to work as a team and occasionally offer support to other departments. You may be asked to cover other departments' show plots in an emergency.

For the avoidance of doubt, responsibilities may include but will not be limited to:

- Maintaining the Production as instructed and dictated by the artistic requirements and direction of the Production;
- Managing your department (including casual staff and deps), including recruitment, line management, scheduling and recording of hours, training and having an awareness and understanding of the Producer's employment policies;
- Working in accordance with the Producer's Health and Safety policy, which may include working at height, using appropriate safety equipment and clothing, and ensuring departmental staff do the same;
- Complying at all times with the rules and regulations in force at the venues under the control of the Production;
- Taking lead responsibility for ensuring that all the statutory health and safety training required for yourself and your department team members is up to date, personally attending any such training required for your position, ensuring departmental staff do the same and maintaining up to date departmental training records;
- Managing departmental staff absences and ensuring an adequate level of show cover at all times;

- Liaising with the Company Manager, resident creative team members, technical heads of department, stage management, the acting company and theatre staff to ensure the efficient flow of information as necessary for the smooth running of the show;
- Attending all rehearsals, show calls, maintenance calls, get-ins, fit-ups and get-outs as required, including emergency calls in the event of equipment failure or other incident, particularly if there is a risk of the cancellation of a performance;
- Taking lead responsibility for the operation and maintenance of all equipment used by your department, including equipment checks prior to each performance;
- Having an awareness of understudy and swing performances ahead of each show and making necessary adjustments, if any;
- Acquiring a familiarity with all plots/tracks within your department so that you are able to provide absence cover for other members of your department as required, in addition to ensuring that your staff are trained to cover other plots/tracks as required;
- Reading and responding to show reports;
- Compiling and keeping updated cue sheets and other relevant show paperwork, both soft and hard copy, to such a level as to ensure an accurate reference to allow the Production to be remounted at a later date;
- Managing petty cash for your department and the timely placing of any orders for goods and equipment as approved by the Producer;
- Maintaining good relationships with hirers and suppliers;
- Liaising with any third party as the Producer may reasonably require for the purposes of publicising or promoting the Production;
- Such other services as are customarily provided by the Deputy Head of Automation in relation to the production of a first-class musical;
- Any other duties as may be reasonably required in the course of your duties or as instructed by the Lighting Designer, Company Manager, Production Manager, General Managers or the Producers from time to time.

To apply: please send a CV and a short covering letter outlining your suitability for the role to joinus@playfuluk.com with the role you are applying for, your name and where you saw the advert in the subject line by 10am on Thursday 28th November.

Interviews are likely to take place at the end of the week commencing 2nd December. Please note all applicants must have the right to work in the UK.

We are committed to a workplace culture that embraces diversity and inclusion across all departments.
